Circular No. 33—Census 1911, dated Bangalore, the 19*th January* 1911.

From—The Census Superintendent in Mysore.

To—The Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

SIR,

Referring to para 17 (b), Section V of the Census Procedure Code, I have the honor to state that the Superintendent, Government Press, has been advised to forward to you and to the Amildars of the several taluks in the district, printed lists of jatras, fairs, festivals, etc., which are likely to be held at various places in the district about the time of the Final Census on the 10th March 1911.

2. In regard to the Census of these localities, there will be no Preliminary Census and special arrangements for Final Enumeration are called for only in respect of the jatras, fairs, festivals, etc., at which pilgrims, visitors, shop-keepers, etc., are likely to remain at the time of the Final Census on the night of the 10th March 1911. In regard to these latter where the number of people so staying are large, Special Enumerators should be appointed at the rate of one for every 150 persons or less; and Enumeration Tickets should be given to each person as enumerated to prevent him from being counted twice over. The Enumeration Tickets intended for travellers by road may be used for issue to persons enumerated at jatras, fairs, festivals, etc., also.

3. I request that a list of all jatras, fairs, festivals, etc., at which more than 500 persons are expected to remain at the time of the Final Census may be sent to this office with a note showing the special arrangements which have been made for their enumeration.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
V. R. THYAGARAJA AIYAR,
Census Superintendent.
